SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

Updates – The Superintendent brought the Board up-to-date on the following items of interest:

- In order to be in compliance with a directive the District recently received from the New York State Regional Information Center that math assessment scores must be submitted by March 30, Superintendent's Conference Day will be moved from March 29 to Monday, March 26. There will be no school for students on March 26. School will be in session on March 29. Letters about the change in date have been mailed to parents.
- The Citizens' Budget Development Advisory Committee (CBDAC) presented its advisory report to the Board of Education on February 15. The Board of Education will respond to the CBDAC report at the Business Affairs meeting on Thursday, March 29. A budget presentation by Central Administration will take place at the next two Business Affairs Committee meetings on March 1 and March 15. All Business Affairs meetings are held at 7 p.m. at the Joseph M. Barton Administration Building.
- Smithtown School District has a future meteorologist! James Brierton, a tenth grader at High School East, filed a report on the Valentine's Day Ice Storm with CNN. The video was shown on CNN TV, CNN Headline News and CNN.com.
- Students on four Smithtown teams have qualified for the state championships in their respective sports to be held this weekend in various upstate locations. They are: Ryan Terbush, Boys' Swimming; Sean Hoffman, Boys' Bowling; Brendan Connell, Dan Frost, Brendan Martin and Giovanni Signoretti for Boys' Winter Track; and Jessica Toritto, Danielle Toritto, and Erin Pardini for Girls' Winter Track. In addition, the Boys' Winter Track Team was named both League and County champions. Girls' Winter Track Team garnered League Champion status.
- The Smithtown High School East Leadership Class hosted a Senior Connections Valentine's Day Dinner on February 16th for more than 200 Smithtown senior citizens.
- Schools throughout the District observed Black History Month with a variety of projects. These included: studies of the life of Martin Luther King Jr. and other prominent African-Americans, including authors, poets, musicians, and leaders. In addition, there were character education projects focusing on respect and the celebration of differences.
- Smithtown Elementary School's second graders will celebrate Dr. Seuss' Birthday on March 2nd by participating in Read Across America Day.
- The St. James Elementary Civics Club volunteered at the St. James Catholic Church's Soup Kitchen in Setauket, where they set tables for 80 people, provided Valentine bags for the guests, and helped organize the food pantry.
- The Dogwood Elementary Student Council organized and ran a bake sale to raise funds in support of cancer research. Members of the Student Council also made more than 100 blankets for Suffolk County's Project Linus, an organization for children in need.
- Nesconset Elementary is starting a quilting club. Children, parents, and teachers are volunteering their time to make a gift for homeless children living in shelters.
- As part of the ongoing commitment to character education, students at Accomsett Middle School recently attended a multi-media presentation, "Be the Change." This program, sponsored by the PTA Cultural Arts Committee, reinforced the importance of respecting others, being a good citizen, and being a positive role model to others. It supports and continues the anti-bullying initiatives at Accomsett Middle School.
