Comments :

* To be eligible to receive tenure, the probationer must receive composite or overall APPR ratings of either effective or highly effective in at least three of the four preceding years, and if the probationer receives an ineffective composite or overall APPR rating in the final year of the probationary period he/she will not be eligible for tenure at that time.

The probationary period may be shortened pursuant to Education Law Section 3012 provided that the probationer can demonstrate that he/she received an APPR rating in each of the years preceding the probationary appointment for which the probationer is seeking Jarema credit.

The probationary period may be shortened pursuant to Education Law 3012 because the probationer has received tenure in Smithtown or another school district or BOCES provided that the probationer can demonstrate that he/she received an APPR rating in his/her final year of service in the former tenure area in Smithtown or in his/her final year of service in the other school district or BOCES.

The probationer is not subject to an APPR rating and the probationary period is reduced due to Jarema credit.

The probationer is not subject to APPR rating and the probationary period is or may be reduced due to prior tenure in Smithtown, another school district or BOCES, pending verification of prior tenure.
